

Sewee Longleaf Conservation Cooperative

Landowner meeting and Feral hog workshop- Free

October 1, 2013

8:30 until Noon (lunch provided)

McClellanville Town Hall
405 Pinckney Street, McClellanville, South Carolina 29458

The SLCC is a cooperative group promoting communication and support for longleaf restoration and management in the Sewee landscape of Berkeley, Lower Georgetown, and Charleston Counties within and surrounding the Francis Marion National Forest.

*Please RSVP to steve@scwf.org to get an accurate count for lunch.

Agenda

8:30 – 9:00	Refreshments and Registration
9:00 – 9:20	Current SLCC projects and initiatives	Eric Krueger, TNC
9:20 – 9:30	Rural Resource Coalition news	Marjorie Palmer, TNC
9:30 – 10:00	SLCC Costshare Program	Steve Moore, SCWF
10:00 – 10:30	Aerial Hog Control & SC Wild Hog Task Force Update	Noel Myers, USDA
10:30 – 12:00	Integrated wild hog management with Trap Demonstration	Ben Powell, Clemson Ext
Noon	Lunch and Networking

Visit our website to learn more; www.seweelongleafcoop.com
Contact Steve Moore with questions at steve@scwf.org or 843-559-1999.

